

List of women candidates from Sindh

Pakistani women, who have long been denied their rightful position at home, at work and at the helm of power too, have a huge stake in upcoming elections. It is encouraging to see that two women from tribal areas and in Sindh, a Pakistani Hindu woman, who once used to be a bonded labor is also going to contest elections.

Aurat Foundation Karachi office has obtained the overall part wise lists of women party candidates, list of rejected nomination papers of women candidates and part wise lists of selected candidates. All these lists are attached herewith.

Nomination papers of 10 women candidates of PML-N have been accepted for reserved seats in Sindh Provincial Assembly. While 13 nomination papers of PML-F' women and 5 nomination papers of All Pakistan Muslim League, 5 papers of Pakistan Muslim league- Sindh , 4 papers of the women of National Peoples Party NPP have been accepted. Papers of 5 women of Tehreek-e-Insaf, 11 of Jamaat Islami, 4 papers of Awami National Party, ANP, 5 of Sindh United Party women, 2 of Qaumi Awami Tehreek, 1 of Muttehadadda Dini Mahaz and 2 of PPP-SB have been accepted, Nomination papers of 27 women of PPPP and 12 of MQM women have been accepted while nomination papers of 6 women of Peoples Muslim League have been accepted.
