Civil society protest against minor girl's rape

Islamabad

Members of the civil society Monday staged a protest demonstration against the rape of five-year-old girl in Lahore.

The activists of civil society members staged a protest in Jinnah Super Market of Islamabad against the rape of a minor girl. PPP's MNA Nafeesa Shah, Rubina Khalid led the protest outside the National Press Club in Islamabad. Civil Society activists including Tahira Abdullah, Dr. Farzana Bari and others were also present on the occasion.

A large number of people including PPP workers were carrying banners and placards inscribed with slogans against police and criminals. Addressing on the occasion, representatives of various walks of life strongly condemned the tragic incident of a 5-year-old girl rape in Lahore. They demanded of the government to ensure the arrest of culprits at earliest and demanded strict punishment for them. — Online
